Dear Colleague,

Seasons greetings from the Chain Reaction team!

We have enjoyed connecting, collaborating and committing with you...and wish you all the best for the New Year!

2008 has been an exciting year, with the first Chain Reaction event a huge success! And so we would like to say a big THANK YOU to all of you who helped make it that way - and here are our plans for 2009...

Following up on the Commitments and the Collaborations...

At the Chain Reaction event, attendees formed new connections, collaborations and pledged new commitments for social change. Early in the New Year we plan to contact those individuals to follow up on their progress

Improving our network - Can you help?

A major task for 2009 will be to improve our website and online network. If you have any thoughts on what needs to be done, or if you think that you can help us with this please email us

Planning the 2009 event

From the feedback received from Chain Reaction 2008, and working with a wide range of partners from the worlds of local and national government, business, and the third sector, we will begin planning Chain Reaction 2009

If you have any further feedback on the Chain Reaction event 2008, or if you would like to be involved in some capacity please email us

Our next newsletter will be out in the New Year, and so in the meantime, best wishes from all of us at Chain Reaction: Geraldine, David, Laura, Spyro and Richard.

We look forward to collaborating with you again in 2009 chain reaction Chain Reaction is about one talent, experience or idea unlocking another, creating massive energy in a chain. Our individual actions multiplied by millions of others are a driving force for change. If our individual actions are reflected in the behaviour of organisations and businesses, and supported by government, then, together, we have the power to change the world.
